

Bookbinding Techniques Workshop by Susan Doran

Susan Doran is a graduate of RIT, working graphic artist and 20 years in a school district gives her the experience to share her favorite crafts. She is an accomplished artist and teacher. In the Bookbinding Workshop, we will work on a variety of binding styles which may include the following styles: the accordion fold, matchbook, perfect bound, pamphlet stitch, stab binding, post and leather binding. Tools and basic supplies will be provided. Ideas and questions are encouraged.

Date: April 22, 2023

Class A: 10 a.m.to 12 noon

Class B: 1:00 p.m. to 3:00 p.m.

Location: Lima Public Library Scutt Room

Pre-Registration Required: This adult class is limited to 6 people/ session. Pre-registration is required by sending a check for $12 to Friends of the Lima Library, PO Box 283, Lima, NY 14485 by April 15, 2023 with the form below. The cost of the session includes all supplies and instruction. This class is sponsored by the Friends of the Lima Public Library.

Registration Form for the Bookbinding Techniques Workshop

Please make the $12 check out to: Friends of the Lima Public Library

Select One: _____ Class A: 10 a.m.to 12 noon _____ Class B: 1:00 p.m. to 3:00 p.m.

Name: _____

Address: _____

Town/ State/ Zip _____

Email: _____

Cell Phone: _____